... Simply Extraordinary

IT'S NOT JUST ALL WORK WITH BROCK SMITH CUSTOM HOMES

Brock Smith, owner of Brock Smith Custom Homes believes there is more to building homes than just constructing a house. Brock enjoys creating memories for his clients, building a home for families to gather and to have fun along the way. Bringing past and current clients together for an evening out of fun and appreciation is also important to Brock and manager of day-to-day on-site construction Kevin Moos. Last summer, Brock and Kevin invited a group of their past and current clients to a "Night of Baseball" in a private suite at Safeco Field. Their guests enjoyed a Mariner's game, food and beverages and were able to get to know each other. Some discovered that they were soon to be neighbors in the homes Brock had built for them. With a great time had by all – Brock and Kevin are busy planning their next client event.
