BROCK SMITH CUSTOM HOMES, LLC TEAMS UP WITH SCHOENFELD INTERIORS CUSTOM HOME DIVISION

At Brock Smith Custom Homes, we recognize that the interior design and selection process can seem like a daunting task. In many instances clients find it beneficial to hire a designer to help them through this process.

Brock Smith Custom Homes is continually looking for ways to bring value to our clients. After working on four homes together with Schoenfeld Interiors, we decided that bringing the two companies together could be a benefit to our common clients. With this in mind, we are pleased to announce a new alliance with Schoenfeld Interiors available only to clients of Brock Smith Custom Homes.

Schoenfeld Interiors has been an institution in the Pacific Northwest for over 100 years – a local, family owned business furnishing homes for generations.

Bob Schoenfeld has established a new Custom Home Division to offer a complete home design package exclusively for Brock Smith Custom Home clients. This new venture will be headed by Susie Barrett. Susie is a graduate of the Art Institute of Seattle and she has been involved in design for nearly 20 years. Susie has been a member of the Schoenfeld Interiors team for many years and has worked on Custom Homes – including four projects in Tumble Creek, Street of Dreams projects and homes in the John L Scott “Parade of Homes”. Susie’s work has been recognized with awards including “Best Interior Design” and “Best House in Show”.

The Custom Home division at Schoenfeld Interiors will work hand-in-hand with Brock Smith Custom Homes clients providing design assistance, attending meetings to help coordinate the many separate elements of interior finish – plumbing, lighting, hardware, carpet, tile, wall colors – and the rest of the selections that are part of bringing a new home vision to life.
